

Rules of Proceeding of The Meeting:

- a. Decision making is based on consensus
- b. For matters on which consensus cannot be reached, Delegates shall attempt to look for the simplest solution. If they failed, then the matters shall be dropped.
- c. Delegates will discuss each article of the list of issues to be discussed. Comments are advisable. However if there are no comments, the discussion will continue to the next issue.
- d. Each delegate has the right to express his/her opinion
- e. The summary of discussion will be prepared and circulated after lunch for approval and comments by all delegates.